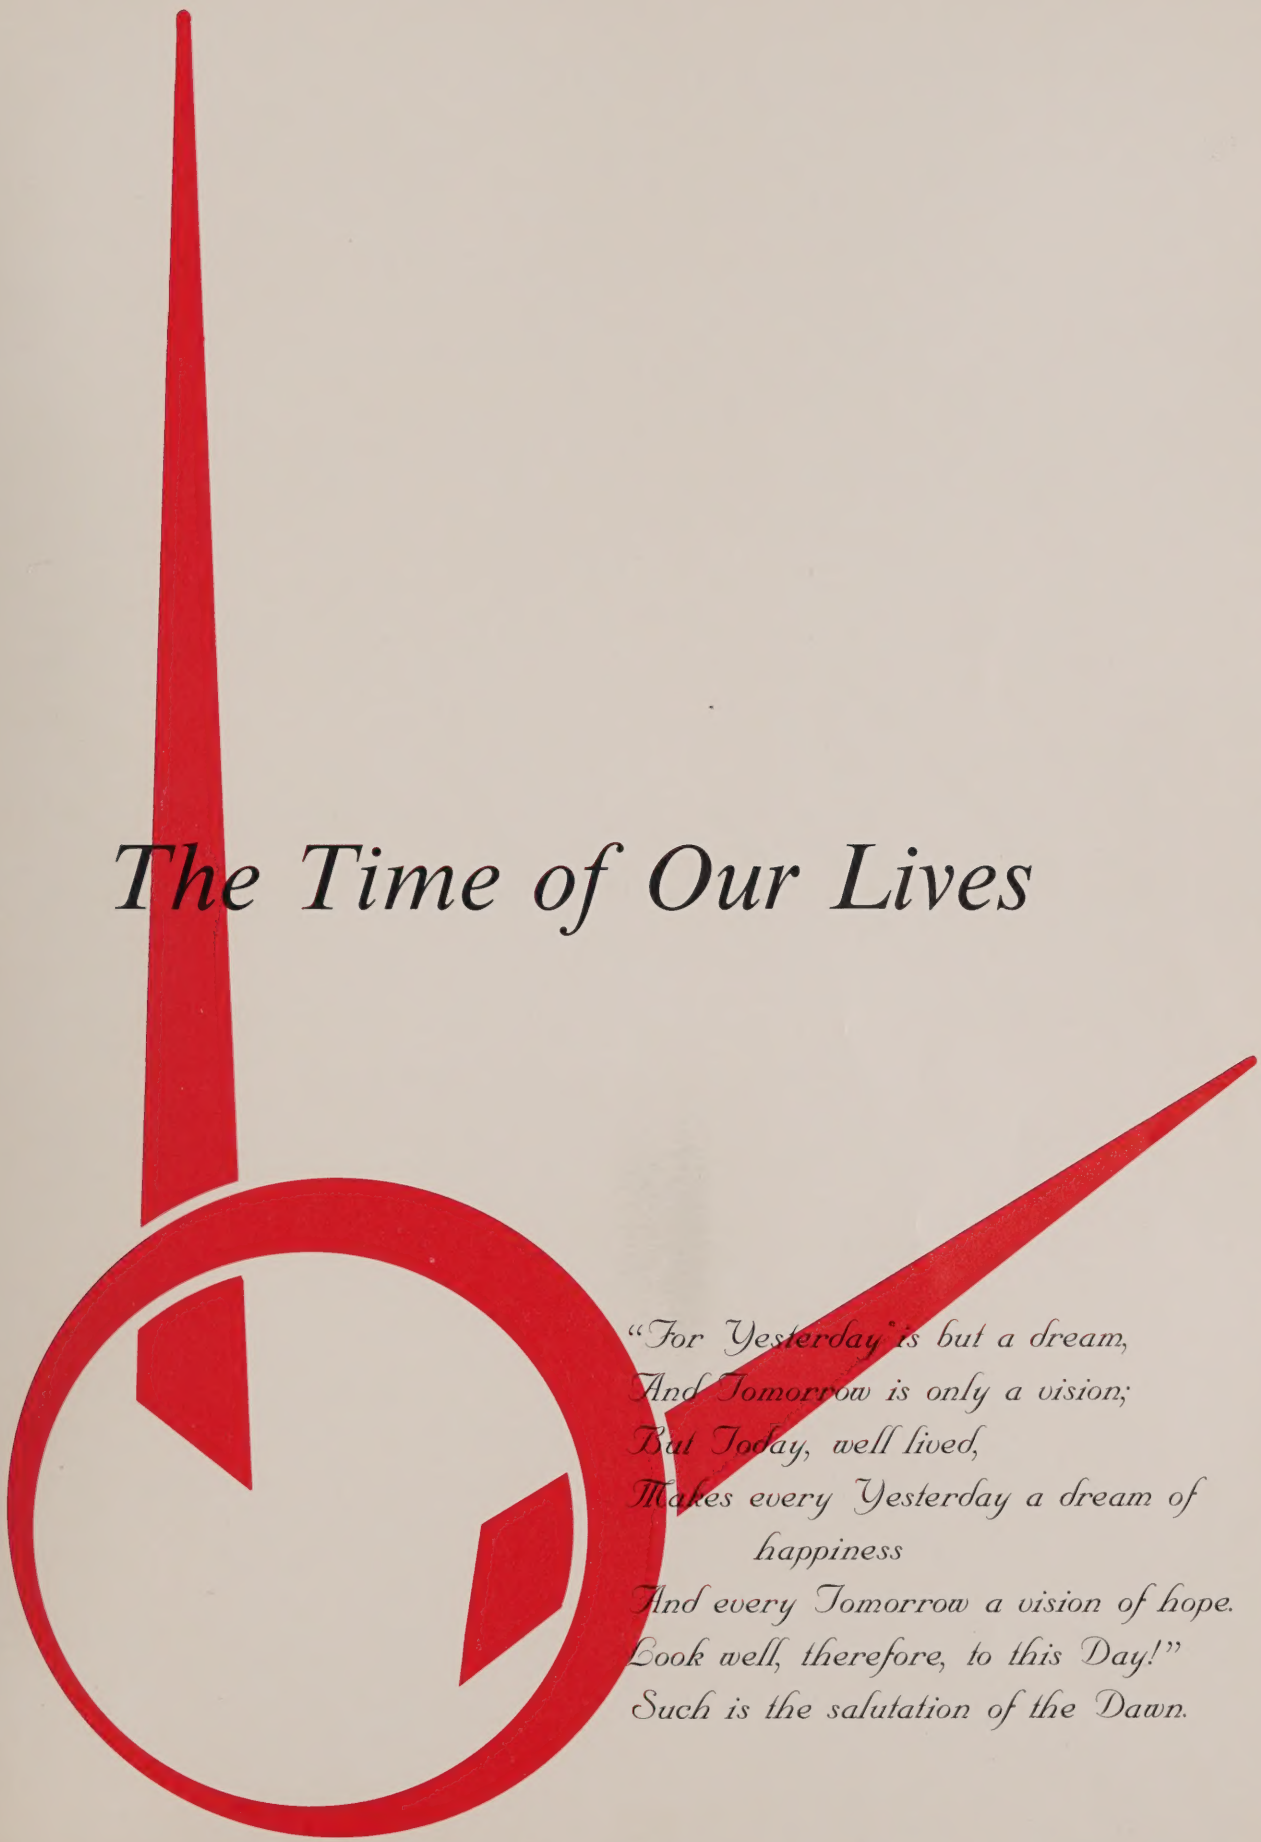
The Time of Our Lives



"For Yesterday is but a dream,
And Tomorrow is only a vision;
But Today, well lived,
Makes every Yesterday a dream of happiness
And every Tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this Day!"
Such is the salutation of the Dawn.

Dedicated to . . .

Mr. Francis K. Dwyer

Since becoming class adviser in our sophomore year, Mr. Dwyer has helped us over many stumbling blocks with willingness and devotion. His humor and understanding have aided both the individual student and the entire class.

Mr. Dwyer has been to us like the steady hand of a clock which chimes the hours of achievement. These hours have flown swiftly, but not without leaving a lasting impression of his tireless help. Our class, in one voice, expresses to Mr. Dwyer our thanks and deepest appreciation.

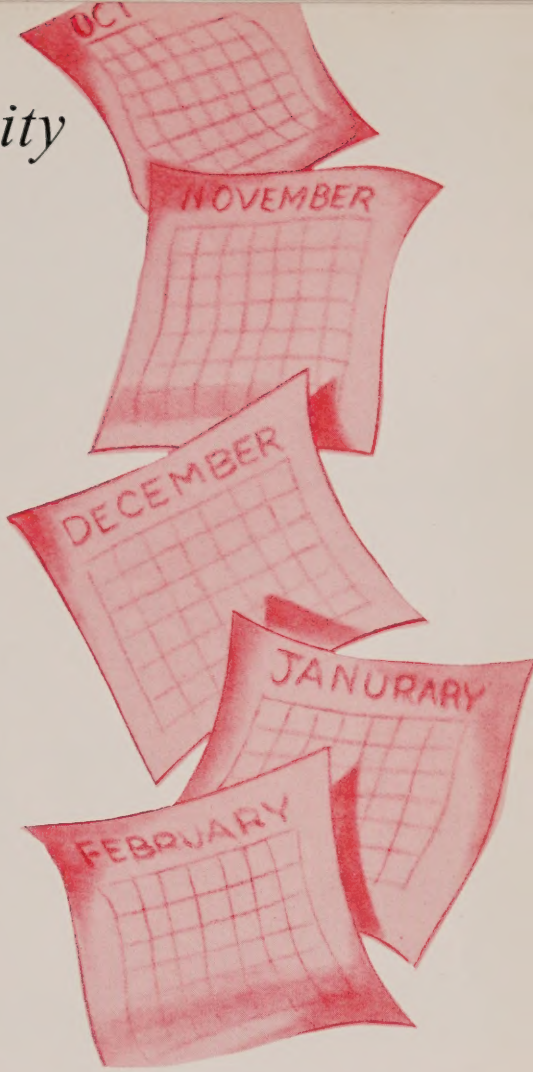
The Essence of Eternity



Time is a pendulum swinging from the past to the future. From the Age of Stone, when an ancient race toiled to raise the might of Stonehenge, to that glorious moment of the countdown for Astronaut John Glenn in the Age of Space, Time's memory has recorded many things. Nations rise and fall, wars are won and lost, men live and laugh and achieve and die—and all is recorded in the Book of Time. So it has been with our high school days. Laughter, hard work, and high hopes for whatever future Time will bring to us — all are remembered as we prepare to follow the schedule of the ages.

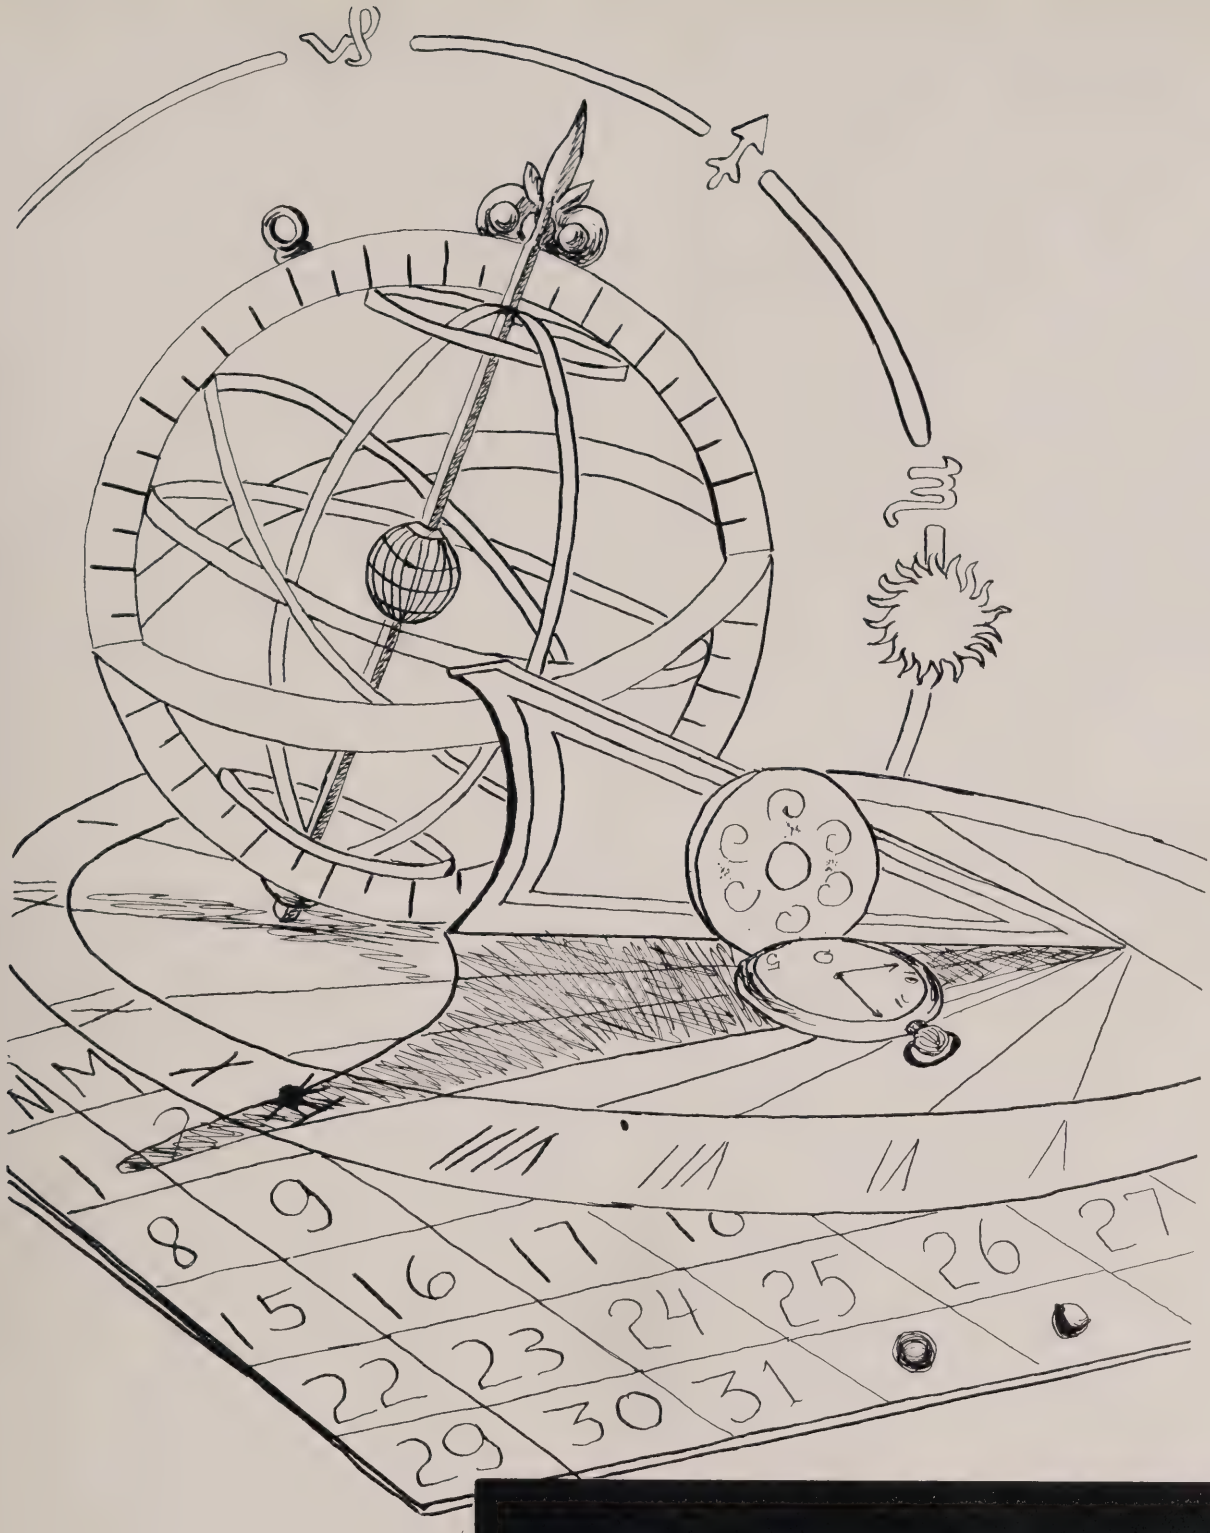
Time's book has many pages.

This year—1962—is but another page in the ageless book of Time. Throughout this endless span is recorded the entire history of mankind, from the very moment of its creation to the present day.

But for us, this year is more than a mere tick in Time's clock. It is our special year, a year which marks an outstanding event of our lives. It is a year full of joy and sorrow, laughter and tears. It is a year in which our hearts utter both "Hello" and "Goodbye."

Now, as we pause for a brief moment, we realize the tremendous importance of 1962 to each and every one of us. And to help us remember our leaders at this time, we have listed them on this page.



FACULTY

"Our Time is your Time."

Administration

How do you thank someone for the gift of knowledge? Mr. Harvard H. Broadbent, Superintendent of Schools, and the Barnstable School Committee have played a major part in bringing the kind of education which opens new horizons, new ideas, and new knowledge to us. School years are so important in achieving life's goal since our lives are, for a great part, shaped during this time. Only the sincerest gratitude can be shown Mr. Broadbent for helping us on our way to bigger and better things.

Mr. Harvard H. Broadbent

Mr. Frederick M. Hodge

We, the Class of 1962, wish to express our heartfelt thanks to Mr. Frederick M. Hodge, Director of Curriculum of Barnstable High School. With a ready smile and many a helpful word, Mr. Hodge has been an example as well as a leader. Each of us would be content to achieve a mere part of his warmth, ability, and knowledge.

Mr. C. Eldon Lawson

C. Eldon Lawson, Guidance Director, is a great friend to students of all grades. Mr. Lawson makes an effort to talk with members of each class, discuss their plans and problems, and help them ready themselves for careers. We are extremely grateful for his careful guidance and warm friendship displayed over the past four years.

Mr. W. Leo Shields

As Assistant Principal and Director of Athletics, Mr. Shields is one of the busiest administrators at Barnstable High School. His understanding and humor have made him both loved and respected. The Class of 1962 wishes, at this time, to thank Mr. Shields who will long remain in our memories not only as a leader in school spirit but, most of all, as a fine man.

Mr. Briah K. Connor

Mr. Briah K. Connor, Principal of Barnstable High School, has been an inspiring example of efficient leadership and vitality. Throughout our high school years he has been a friend as well as a leader. We shall never forget his force, his easy sense of humor, or his interest in our class, and we thank him for valuable advice and for caring throughout four rich and rewarding years.

We only hope that we can express our gratitude for this unceasing devotion and for our very special memory book.

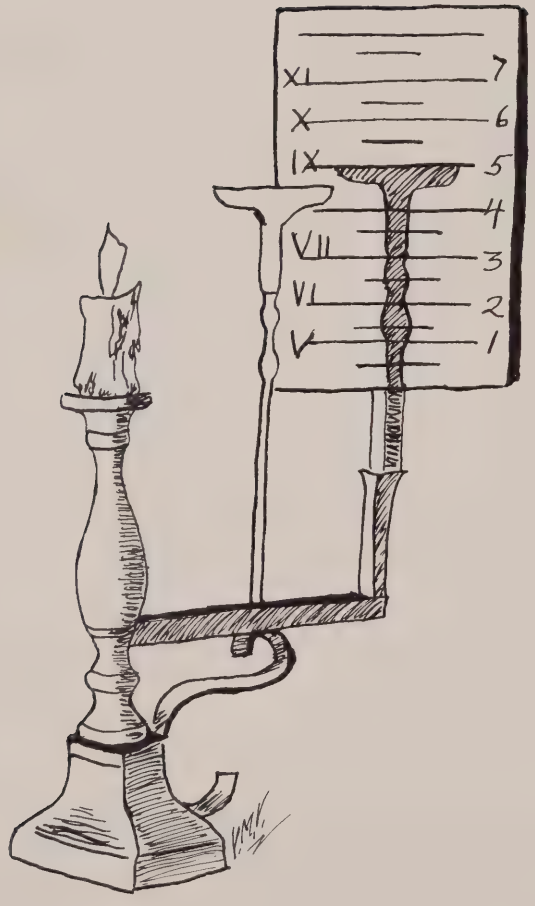
SENIORS

"We recount our happy hours."

Times Gone By



As freshmen, senior year seemed to be an eternity away. Now it is here, and as our high school years draw to a close, time seems to have flown. Many things have happened during the past four years . . .

There was the first day of school in September, 1958, when we poured through the doors of Barnstable High School anxious to begin our role as the Class of 1962. That year we were allowed to join in some activities, participate in Junior Varsity Sports, including the newly-formed hockey squad, and experience the tension of the Iowa Tests.

With Mr. Robert Garbutt as our class adviser, we elected Daniel McEvoy our president. Andrew Milk was vice-president, with Lisa Tulis as secretary, and John Bowes as treasurer. Our Student Council representative was Saunie Chase.

At the beginning of our sophomore year, we again elected officers, under the guidance of Mr. Garbutt. Andrew and Daniel exchanged offices, John was re-elected treasurer, and Barbara Thomas became our secretary. William Marvin and Saunie Chase were the Student Council members.

Our first real class project was the dance "Autumn Leaves". That year Paul Stringer and William Marvin were elected to Key Club. Diane Ballard, Barbara Connolly, Sandra Cooper, Carole Hinckley, Emily Stein, Dona Thorn, Jane Tobin, and Dianne Wiinikainen joined the Code Club.

Our class also had charge of the food concession at Town Meeting, which added somewhat to the treasury.

Our junior year was a busy one, starting with class elections. Andrew Milk was again elected president, Dianne Wiinikainen became vice-president, Emily Stein, secretary, and Christopher Howes, treasurer. Mr. Francis Dwyer took over as our adviser. Carol Howes, William Marvin, and Lisa Tulis were chosen as Student Council representatives.

We energetically dove into the sale of fudge and penuche; then tackled selling "Raider Buttons".

New Code Club members were Dianna Panesis and Gemma Hallett; Mark Sandler was elected to Key Club.

The big social event of our junior year was the prom, "Beyond the Sea". Saunie Chase was chosen queen, with Sandra Cooper, Carol Howes, Lisa Tulis, and Karen Zarate in her court. Mark Sandler headed the affair as prom chairman, and Carole Hinckley, Stuart Bookstein, Judy Walo, Sheila Alymer, Jeffrey Crocker, William Marvin, and Susan MacLeod were in charge of the committees.

Emily Stein went as our delegate to Massachusetts Girls' State in June; Wayne Hinckley and Paul Stringer represented us at Boys' State.

Finally our senior year began. With Andrew Milk, Susan MacLeod, Emily Stein, Gemma Hallet, and Mr. Dwyer to lead us, we started the most hectic year of all. Carol Howes, Sandra Cooper, Harry Holway, and Judy Walo were elected to Student Council.

Football season was very successful this year, with our team, led by Daniel McEvoy, winning the Cape and Tri-County Championships. Thanksgiving Day saw the start of a new tradition—an annual Barnstable High School Football Queen. Chosen for this was Diane Ballard, with Saunie Chase and Sandra Cooper as princesses.

Another first for Barnstable was the Drill Team, the joy of its director, Miss Katherine Nehubian. Bright and cheerful in their colorful uniforms, the Drill Team entertained during the halves of football games.

We sold magazines during the fall, as was the custom for all senior classes, and made more money on this project than any other class had done.

Key Club members were James Diniak, Harry Holway, John Jenkins, Richard Lanoue, George Pierce, and Donald Weaver; Sandra Cooper and Roberta Counsell became Key Club Sweethearts. Code Club initiated Candace Greenwood, Karen and Susan Merritt, and Judy Walo. William Marvin was chosen to represent us on Student Government Day.

"Winter Wonderland," our senior dance, was a huge success, with Diane Ballard reigning as queen.

As this Barnacle, compiled under the direction of Mark Sandler, editor; Emily Stein, assistant editor; and Mrs. Catherine Towey, adviser, goes to print, we are all looking forward to the banquet and graduation.

Many other things enter our minds as we review our high school years . . . "intestinal fortitude" . . . numerous trips to the Activities Room . . . lunches . . . class meetings . . . contraptions in the showcase . . . dances . . . parties . . . sports . . . Platter Party . . . and many wonderful friends.

Some of us plan to go on to colleges and universities, some to join the service, some to start careers, and some to make their own homes. Although we shall go our separate ways, never will we forget our years at Barnstable High School, the constant guidance of all the teachers, and the wonderful cooperation of the administration.

Yesterday is gone; tomorrow never comes; this is today. Let us all do our individual parts to make the most of it.

Student Council

Council Adviser, Mr. John J. Kilcoyne.

Our Student Council has provided the students with a suggestion box to aid them in voicing their opinions about school activities and have had charge of all student elections. As a new project this year, the Council has presided over the student Social Calendar.

The Council consists of eleven members: four seniors, three juniors, two sophomores, one freshman, and one member from the Vocational School. The Faculty adviser is Mr. John J. Kilcoyne.

Executive Board

The Senior Executive Board, consisting of the class officers and of two representatives elected from each home room, acts upon various issues which, because of lack of time, must be overlooked at class meetings. Presided over by Mr. Francis K. Dwyer, our class adviser, board meetings are called whenever necessary to discuss topics relating to the welfare of the Senior Class. Each member is urged to report on the actions of the board and to ask his classmates for their personal opinions and suggestions.

BARNACLE LITERARY STAFF

Throughout the ages, men have kept records of important events so that the generations to come could better know and understand their ancestors. It is for this reason that the literary staff of the 1962 yearbook, the Barnacle, has dug into the past, recorded happenings of the present, and even done a little fortune telling. Under the guidance of Mrs. Towey, our adviser, with Mark Sandler and Emily Stein as co-editors, the staff strove to compile a complete chronicle of our high school years.

Key Club

Key Club, sponsored by the Hyannis Kiwanis Club, is a high school service organization for both the school and community. As such it is a part of Key Club International which, in turn, is affiliated with the Kiwanis Clubs.

Officers of the past year were Paul Stringer, president; Dana Hinckley, vice-president; Wayne M. Hinckley, treasurer; and Arnold Rogean Jr., secretary. Mr. Arnold Rogean was the adviser.

Among the projects undertaken were Hyannis Library Tag Day, a very successful bottle drive, and a skate hop.

Code Club

The Barnstable High School Code Club is a service organization sponsored by the Hyannis Rotary Club.

Officers for this year were Diane Ballard, president; Emily Stein, vice-president; Cynthia Ward, secretary; and Jane Tobin, treasurer. Miss Helen Jones was faculty adviser.

Among the club's activities this year were the Hyannis Library Tag Day, collecting money for the March of Dimes and the Heart Fund, and acting as part-time tray girls at the Cape Cod Hospital.

Dramatic Club

If you were to look in on a rehearsal of the Barnstable High Dramatic Club, you would probably see talented students working out under the tutelage of Mr. Charles Howes. You would see numerous prop men milling around struggling to meet a deadline. The Dramatic Club, in spite of its small enrollment, has prepared three skits and four one-act plays.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society of Barnstable High School is composed of students who maintain an A average in seventy-five percent of their classes and a B average in their remaining studies. However, membership in this society is based on more than superior scholastic ability: each member elected to the National Honor Society is also judged on his ability as a leader, his service to his school and community, and his character. Mr. John J. Kilcoyne is adviser to the group.

Band and Majorettes

The statement that good things come in small packages was proven true this year by the B. H. S. Band. The band, though small in number, was large in spirit. They could always be heard cheering our football team on to victory. Under the able leadership of Mr. Robert Frazier, the band worked together with the newly-formed drill team and the high-stepping majorettes led by Roberta Counsell. The band also gave us many enjoyable minutes at a number of musical assemblies.

Something new appeared at Barnstable High School this year in the form of a sixty-girl drill team directed by Miss Katherine M. Nehubian. Form is what they had, color is what they displayed, and precision is what they strived for.

They added a gay note as they marched proudly between the halves at the football games with their white sweaters and pleated skirts, and their performance aroused spirit in the players and spectators alike.

So hats off and many thanks to this newest addition to the Barnstable High athletic program!

The Barnstable High School Orchestra, directed by Mr. Jennings Butterfield, is made up of approximately twenty-five musicians with a wide variety of instruments, including violins, clarinets, trombones, and flutes. The various members of this group have taken part in many school assemblies, beside participating in the 1961 Cape Cod Music Festival. Throughout the past four years, these young people have contributed greatly to the pleasure and musical enjoyment of their schoolmates in all of these activities.

All-Girl Chorus

The music of the Barnstable High School All-Girl Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Simon Gesin, has entertained us all throughout high school. The chorus, a hard working organization that meets at least twice a week, consists of junior and senior girls. This past year the chorus has performed for the Massachusetts Association of School Committees, in addition to the Christmas and Memorial Day concerts. The chorus also supplied special music for graduation.

Carolyn Cook was honored by being chosen to attend the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival.

Barnstable Vocational High School

Mr. Theodore Glover, Director of the Vocational School.

The Barnstable Vocational High School, open to all Cape boys, offers instruction in five trades. Courses given in automobile mechanics, boat-building, carpentry, electrical work, and plumbing prepare the boys as advanced apprentices and enable them to work in their trades immediately after graduation. Instruction is given both in the classrooms and the shops.

This year the boys in the carpentry shop have built the house pictured on page 16. The plumbing and electrical work was done by boys in those shops.

Time Out To Remember . . .

Miss Aikens has proved invaluable to all students throughout their high school years. She has not only aided us when we're sick, but, by her constant interest in our welfare, has tried to prevent any illness which might arise.

We will never forget and never stop wondering how on earth the cafeteria staff could keep smiling in the face of all the bread, tuna fish, lettuce, and celery for more than eight hundred and thirty delicious sandwiches!

The Driver Education course is maintained not only to teach students to drive, but to instruct them in the workings and operations of a car. Pictured here is Mr. Frederick Cameron, the instructor, discussing the road test with student drivers.

The lineup—Here are the faces we first see on our way to school each morning. The bus drivers are Messrs. G. McGoff, R. Ollis, W. Scudder, B. Jones, F. Childs, M. Salazar, T. Souza, B. Mann, A. Vierre, B. Perry, and K. Green.

Someone new in the office this year is Mrs. Carol Montcalm. Her assistance is an integral part of our school life for which we owe her many thanks.

Another friend of ours is Miss Beatrice Syriala, our school secretary, who always has a cheerful smile and friendly manner.

Every year all the students are given physical check ups. Included in this program is an eye test and, as Carol Mendes illustrates, an ear test being given by Mrs. William Howes.

Nourishing and appetizing meals are prepared for the students by the cafeteria staff. They are Beatrice Smith, Mary Carlson, Alice Curtis, Willie Frechette, our genial chef, Minna Place, our dietitian, Henry Fitzpatrick, Marty Davis, Elsie Hautanen, and May Dalrymple.

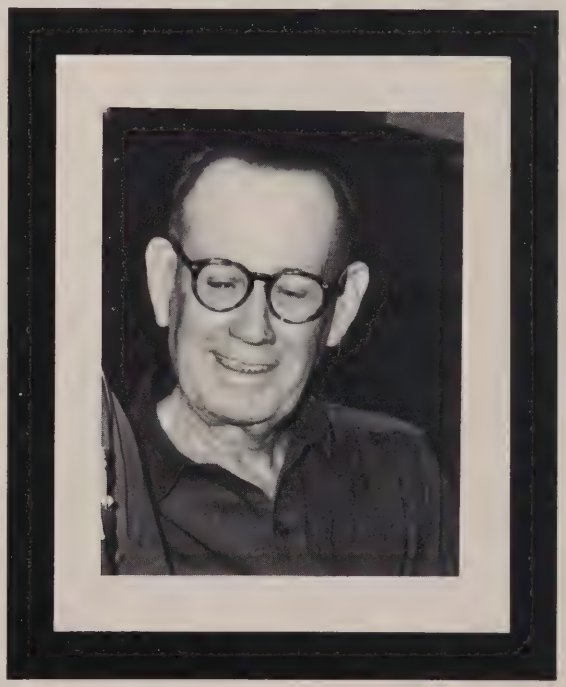
Mary Ann Hiller

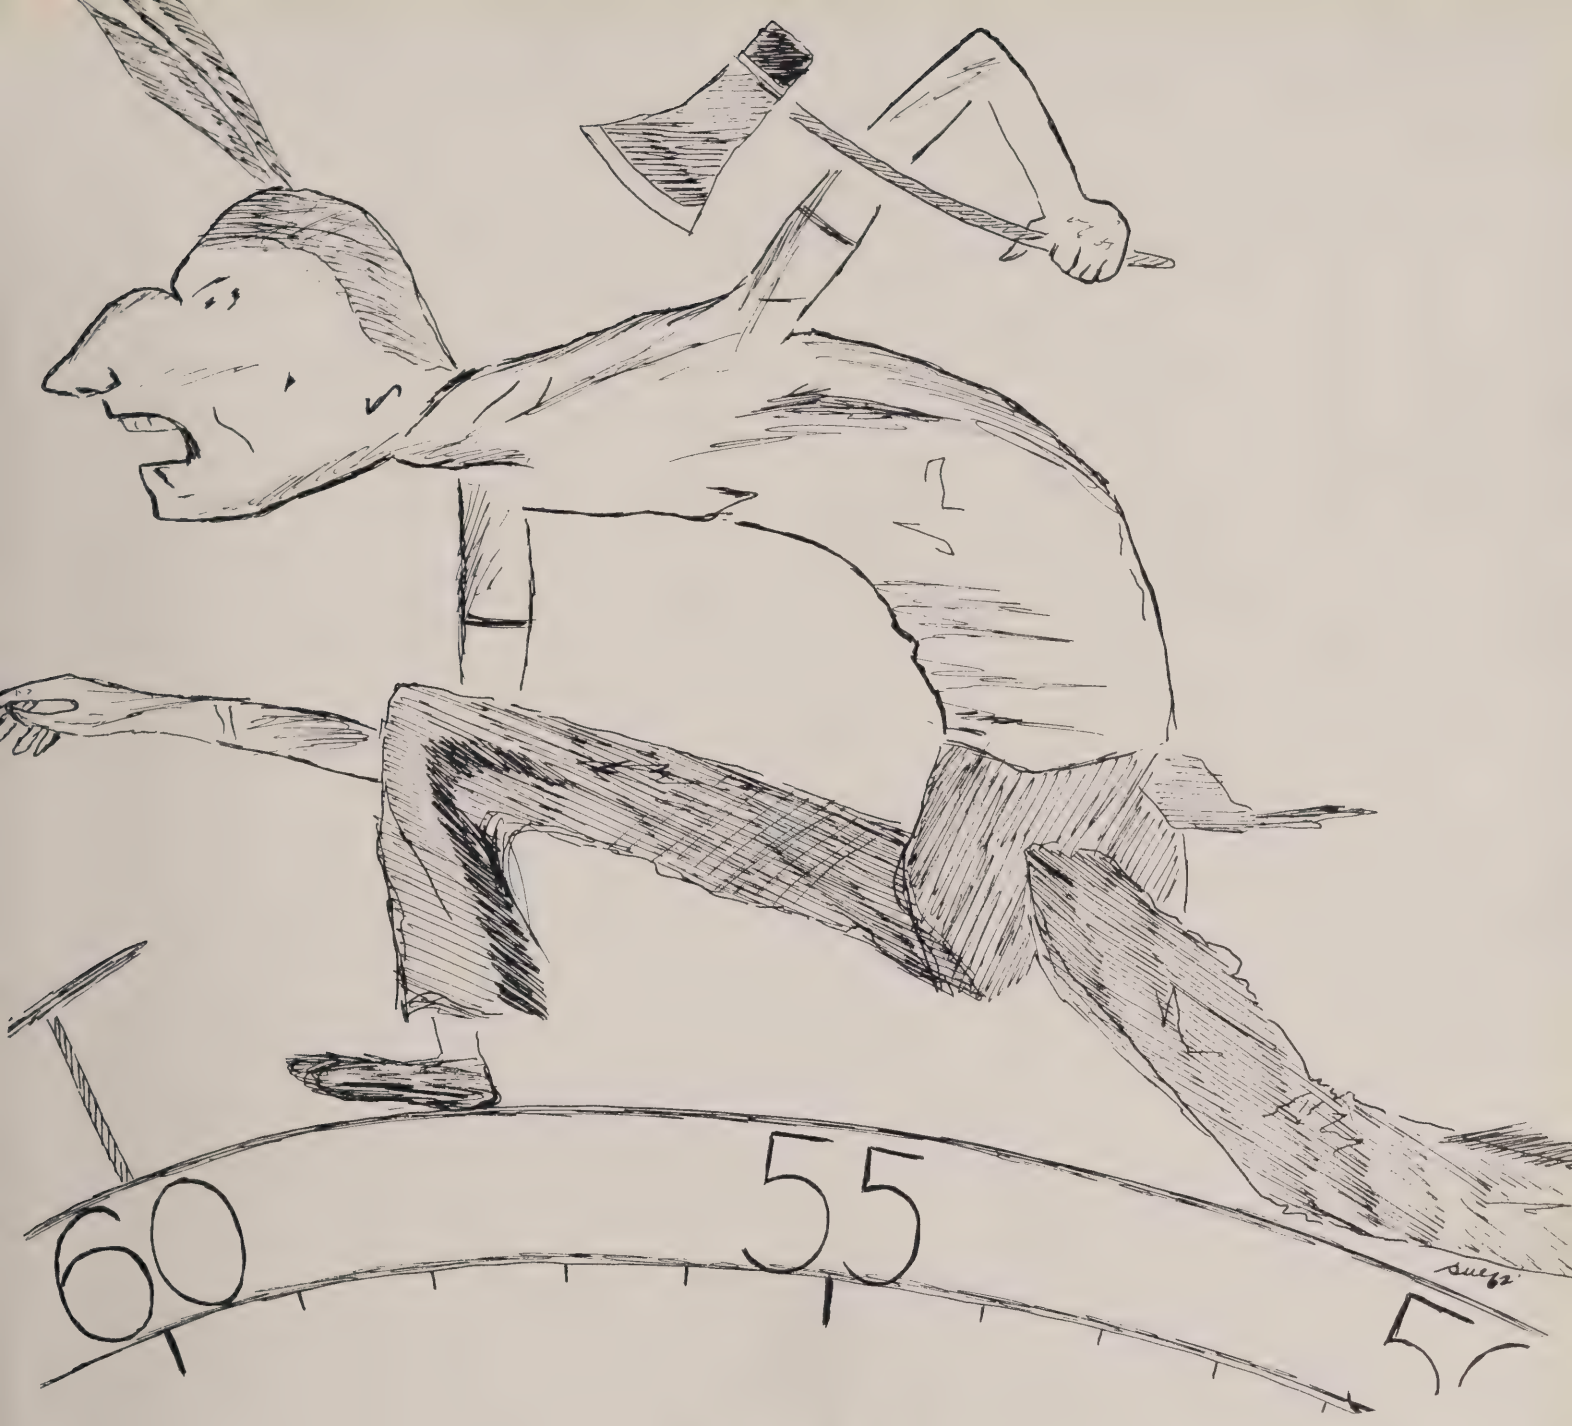
To Mary Ann Hiller, who passed away during the summer of 1959, the class of 1962 wishes to leave this remembrance in our Barnacle. Although Mary Ann was unable to participate in many activities of the class, her gentleness and sweet disposition won her a place in the hearts of us all.

IN MEMORIAM

Thomas L. Doran

The class of 1962 expresses sorrow at the passing of a beloved friend last summer. Tommy Doran, of the maintenance staff, knew most of the students at Barnstable High by name, and hailed everyone with a smile and a friendly greeting. His sincerity and affability made him a popular figure with both students and faculty.





SPORTS

"To beguile the time . . ."

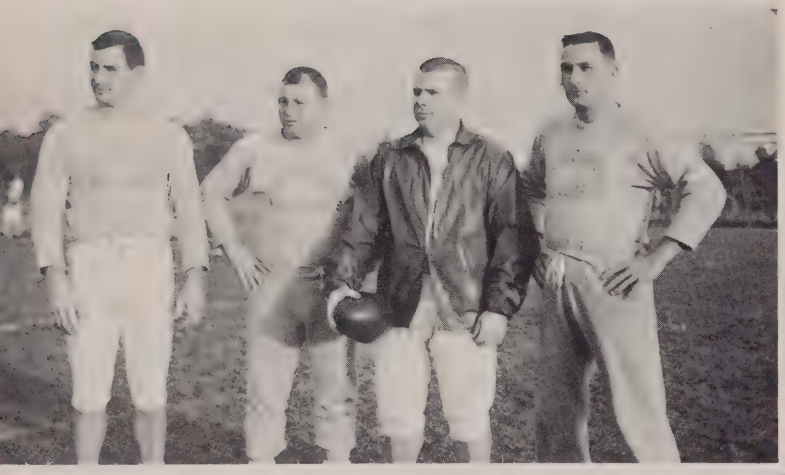
Spirit is the Password

FOOTBALL

Success was the key word for this year's football team. Under the guidance of Coach John Parker, the boys learned much in the spirit of teamwork and hard play.

In compiling a 7-1-1 record, the team crushed such formidable foes as Somerset, Wareham, Dennis-Yarmouth Regional, and Turkey-Day rival, Falmouth.

For outstanding play throughout the year, five members were placed on the Cape Cod All-Star Football Team: Captain Dan McEvoy, Dan Hostetter, Frank Buckler, Joe Borowick, and Fred Rivers.



Coaches McWilliams, Hostetter, Parker, and Gleason survey the battlefield.

Cheerleaders

Tireless energy and an infectious spirit are the passwords of the Barnstable High School cheerleaders. Under the direction of Miss Bertha Newcomb they have jumped, shouted, and sung until every football and basketball fan has caught part of their boundless pep and enthusiasm.

SOCCER

The soccer team, although it didn't win many games, is to be commended for the season's work.

Coach Charles Howes instilled in the boys a love of soccer, as well as a good fundamental knowledge of the game.

Captained by Alphonse Montagna, the team fought every game with zeal, and when the final gun was fired, they — and those around them — knew that the contest had been well played.

Boys' Basketball

This year's basketball team, under the direction of Coach "Dinny" Dwyer, did much in the spirit of teamwork and hard play. Captained by Jeff Crocker, high-scoring Dan Hostetter and "rotund" John Bowes contributed to the team's 8 won 8 lost record. Starting forwards included such stalwarts as Tom McPherson, Don Weaver, and Mike O'Neil, with Captain Crocker taking the top position at center. Although they did not compete in the Bay State Playoffs, the team's percentage gained them a berth in that competition. In a home-court thriller with Provincetown, Hostetter's free-throws edged them in the final seconds.

Girls' Basketball

Under the superb coaching of Miss Katherine Nehubian, the Barnstable Red Raiderettes completed another successful season. Because Miss Nehubian lost five of her six starters from last year's team, this year was mainly one of rebuilding.

Co-captain Paula Houle led the forward section of bouncy Nancy McGinn, dead-eye Margaret Smith, with Tamara Thorn providing reserve strength. The guards, an often underrated section, led by Co-captain Dona Thorn, consisted of Judy Walo and Sheila Aylmer.

Field Hockey

Under the coaching of Miss Katherine Nehubian the Barnstable High School Girls' Hockey team gained second place in the standings. Although the league consists of only four teams, there is a growing interest in this sport and a lot of enthusiasm put into it. Next year's team promises great things, thanks to numerous and talented underclassmen.

When you graduate it's wonderful to have a telephone job waiting for you. You'll love the friendly new people you meet. And you'll like the excellent salary, the regular increases, the opportunities for advancement and the many additional benefits that make working for the Telephone Company so attractive to so many young people.

Telephone jobs are important ones. We have our own training program which you can enter without any previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate. Ask the Guidance Counselor at your school to tell you when and where to apply.
